

Picture that Dog!

Do you own a dog and a camera or smartphone? Whatever the restrictions and hardships of outdoor life, here is something dog owners can still do and enjoy!

The New Forest Dog Owners Group invites you to enter its 2020 Dog Photographic Competition. Anyone can enter. You don't have to be a member of NFD OG (but you may like to join 1300 responsible owners who already are - it costs £5.00 a year). You can enter as many pictures as you like.

Pictures must be taken in the New Forest (outdoors or at home) between Easter 2020 and the closing date July 31. Entries will be slimmed down to a top 10 by an independent jury. These will go on display at Dogstival at Burtle on September 5/6, where visitors can vote for a winner. (In the event Dogstival is cancelled, voting will take place at the NFD OG Annual General Meeting in the Autumn).

The first prize is a hand painted portrait of your dog, by New Forest Artist Tracey Collyer.

To enter is simple. Take a picture, give it a name, and email (as an attachment) with your details to:

The rules? Members of the NFD OG Committee can't enter. Pictures must be taken locally between dates above (which may be checked using the picture data) and by entering you agree that they be used in future publicity.
